

Why Beckermann » Living

Home » Why Beckermann » Living

Living

The My home product range offers a wealth of ideas for every taste. Whether exclusive wall units systems, stand-alone units or display cabinets are your choice - design solutions made to measure and manufactured from top quality materials help create a smooth transition from the kitchen to the living area. With My home individual planning ideas can be carried through to the very last detail.

Safely accommodated

No wardrobe in your apartment?

A tall cabinet with an extra depth of 71 cm is the solution.

TV wall unit

Recessed shelves are versatile and can be used in the kitchen and living area. The back panel of the titanium grey shelf can be individually selected from the wide portfolio of decors, colours and materials.

Cooking and living in perfect harmony

The basic shelves can be personalised with a variety of elements and made to measure. The shelves in the black metal frame are available in all decors, lacquered and with wood veneer.

Living landscape

A bar with drinks or a coffee bar, a kitchenette or just beautiful tableware - behind the big slide-in doors you can store plenty of objects or features neatly out of sight.

